

AL Oualid is a moroccan, and a 2year PhD student. His family is specialized in aeronautics. It gave him the desire to specialize in fluid mechanics, an important branch of aeronautics. He has studied in Lyon 1 and then spent his last year at "l'école centrale de Lyon". I am an enthusiastic person and eager to learn new things and not afraid of difficulties, I always try to put my heart and soul into everything I do in order to be appreciated as a trustworthy team member.

In my spare time I practice sports, especially nation and basketball, He loves to travel and discover new horizons.